

You Are Invited to Bethsaida Community's
FIRST Annual
"Empowering Women Luncheon"

Our Luncheon will be held on: Friday, July 23, 2010 at 11:30 AM

Location: The Groton Inn & Suites, Route 184, Groton, CT

The Cost Is: $50.00 per person(Register 8 people & get a 10% discount)

~Not only will you have a delicious buffet lunch, you will also hear the stories of three amazing, powerful and empowered women ~

Our speakers include:

Irene O'Connor is a well known and respected anchorwoman for the WFSB Morning News (CT Channel 3). Her career expands over many years and has covered various national and local issues. In addition to her career, Irene and her husband are raising one year old twin boys.

Stacey Honowitz is a twenty-two year veteran of the Florida State Attorney's Office. She has provided legal analysis for the Larry King Live Show, CNN Headline News, Good Morning America and more. She has authored the book "My Privates are Private" a book for both parents & children in dealing with child abuse.

Millie Devine is the Founder of the Southeastern Connecticut Women's Network. The Network is comprised of women who represent various businesses and organizations throughout Southeastern CT. For over 30 years, this group has empowered women as business owners and working professionals.

Register on-line at:
<http://www.bethsaidact.org/Events.htm>

For more information, contact
Linda at ldbethsaida@yahoo.com or call (860) 886-7511 x 202

Or register by sending a check to:
Bethsaida Community, Inc.
PO Box 913
Norwich, CT 06360

Bethsaida provides housing and supportive services to homeless women. For more information visit our website at www.bethsaidact.org